

Mary F. Radford

Professor Mary F. Radford is the Marjorie Fine Knowles Professor of Law at the Georgia State University College of Law, where she has taught since 1984. Her teaching areas include Wills, Trusts & Estates, Elder Law, and Business Succession Planning. Professor Radford is the Immediate Past President of the American College of Trust & Estate Counsel (ACTEC) and a member of the American Law Institute (ALI). She is the author of Redfearn: Wills & Administration in Georgia (Thomson/West 2008), Trusts & Trustees in Georgia (Thomson/West 2012-13 ed.), and Georgia Guardianship and Conservatorship (Thomson/West, forthcoming Winter, 2012). She served as the Reporter for the committee that drafted the 2010 Georgia Trust Code, as well as for the committees that drafted Georgia's Probate Code & Guardianship and Conservatorship Code.