

Odds are extremely high that you are one of the 155 million people working and paying Social Security taxes! Odds are extremely low that you know EXACTLY how Social Security benefits impacts your financial future. Social Security pays benefits to approximately 54 million older Americans, workers who become disabled and families in which a spouse or parent dies. Join us to learn the Ins and Outs of Social Security from an Agency Insider.

Seminar Topics

- How Do I Qualify for Retirement Benefits?
- Deciding When to Retire
- Early Retirement
- Full Retirement
- Delayed Retirement
- Working While Receiving Benefits
- Future of Social Security
- Medicare
- Social Security Online retirement planning services

Bio Information

Desmond “Dez” Thornton is a Regional Public Affairs Specialist for the Social Security Administration. He represents the Atlanta Regional Commissioner on program and public relation issues throughout the Southeastern United States.

Dez is responsible for planning, developing and implementing comprehensive SSA initiatives and educational programs that promote public understanding of all policies and programs administered by SSA.

Additionally, he represents SSA in media appearances, press conferences and speeches throughout the Atlanta metro area.